

Privacy Policy

Prevista Ltd is committed to protecting and respecting the privacy of our visitors and clients when visiting our site or communicating electronically with us.

This Privacy Policy sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you or that you provide to us, will be processed by us.

Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

For the purpose of the Data Protection Act 1998 (the "Act") the data controller is Prevista Ltd, United House, North Road, Islington, London N7 9DP.

What personal data do we collect

You may give us information about you by corresponding with us by phone, email or entering into a learning or employer activity with Prevista. This includes information you provide when you use our website to apply for vacancies or register to receive information on Prevista services.

The information you share with us may include your name, address, email address and phone number, date of birth, marital status, personal description (including gender), geographical location, employment history, details regarding your right to work in the UK, salary information and training/achievements records.

Sensitive personal data. We may also collect, store and use special categories of more sensitive personal information, including race, ethnic origin, religion, sexual orientation and criminal convictions.

How do we use your personal data and what is the legal basis for such processing?

The personal data we collect is usually mandatory and, if such personal data is not provided, we may not be able to process your request. Where the process of collection of any personal data is not mandatory, we will inform you of this prior to collection.

If you are an existing customer, we may contact you with information about our services similar to those that you have expressed an interest in previously via our website or other means of contact with us.

Our contractual basis for collecting and using the personal information described above will depend on the personal information concerned and the specific context in which we collect it.

However, we will normally process your personal information only:

- Where we have your consent to do so
- Where the processing is necessary to perform our contract with you; or
- Where the processing is in our legitimate interests or those of the third party and such interests are not overridden by your data protection interests or fundamental rights and freedoms; and
- Where we have a legal obligation to process your personal information.

Example:

Purpose of processing	Legal basis for processing
Processing a job application	Necessary for performance of a contract
Processing an employer and learner's engagement for apprenticeship provision	Necessary for government funding contractual compliance
Checking you are legally entitled to work in the UK	Legal obligation

If you have questions about or need further information concerning the legal basis on which we collect and use your personal information, please contact us 0207 6094198 and ask for the Data Protection Officer.

Sharing your information

We may disclose your personal data to the following categories of recipient for the purposes described in this Privacy notice:

- Funding agencies for example: Department of Work & Pensions, ESFA
